Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

PERU, May 25.—Daniel Harter and Mrs. Mollie Johnson were married, last evening, at 7 o'clock, in the presence of some sixty guests, mostly relatives of the contracting parties, at the residence of Judge John Mitchell, Rev. B. F. Carver, of the Baptist Church, officiating.

Mr. Harter is one of Miami county's wealthiest and most respected farmers, living some five miles from this city. Mrs. Harter is also a native of Miami county, and well known in this city, having for many years been forewoman at Shirk & Miller's. They left immediately for their new home.

WEDDINGS AT ST. PAUL.
 Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

SHELBYVILLE, May 24.—Mr. Mort Templeton and Miss Anna Peterson, of St. Paul, were married this evening in the Methodist Episcopal Church of that place, by the Rev. Sewell, in the presence of a large crowd.

Mr. Robert Doble, of San Francisco, and Miss Nellie Seaman, of Cincinnati, were married this afternoon at 5 o'clock, and left at 8 o'clock for the golden State. The bride is a most accomplished lady and the daughter of Mr. John Seaman.

THE COLLECTION OF PICTURES.
 Two of the Choice Paintings Which Attract a Great Deal of Study and Praise.

The attendance at the art exhibit continues to be good, and many visitors have returned several times to view the pictures. The public have rarely had the opportunity to see so good an art collection in Indianapolis. To-morrow is children's day, and all the pupils of the different schools in the city will be given a chance to visit the exhibit. On Saturday a party of art lovers from Plainfield are coming up to see it. There is a picture at the exhibit, the work of Mr. J. G. Brown, of New York, entitled "Street Socialism." It is a representation of a meeting of five or six little street urchins in a city—two flower boys, a little girl and three boot-blacks—a typical crowd that the artist would meet almost any day in his wanderings around New York. One of the little boys is playfully holding up a nice bouquet to the little girl's face, while the others look on apparently jealous of their comrade, who seems to have won her attention. The artist has drawn one or two wonderfully fine faces in the crowd. The hair is unkempt, the trousers torn and tattered, the shoes shabby and worn, yet the faces are exceedingly expressive. The whole picture is so very true to nature, so like what people who reside in the city are accustomed to see in real life that it is very attractive. It is valued at $2,000, and is certainly one of the best things from an artistic standpoint that is to be seen at the exhibit. Another beautiful picture, a gem, for it is quite small, is one entitled "Summer Shower Off Naraugansett Pier." This picture, greatly admired by all, has already been sold.

Suggestions as to Art Exhibits.
 To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal:

All endeavors to inspire life with beautiful pictures and high work ought to be successful. The pictures brought here by the Art Association are for this purpose. They who have done well have brought to Mr. D. E. Snyder, president of the Humane Society, yesterday afternoon, a small white dog that had just its eye punched out. Mr. Snyder will be thankful for any information that will lead to the arrest of the parties who perpetrated the cruelty.

Local News Notes.

The Wm. Wilson who filed a suit for divorce, day before yesterday, is not the one popularly known as Billy J. Wilson.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to John P. Medsker and Mary E. Plannert, Herman Neimeyer and Cordelia Casey, Thomas Bailey and Viola Eaton, William A. Meads and Nellie Hight, Lewis P. Brunkman and Lizzie Hunsbun.

Personal and Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Brown left last night for Tolono, Ill., to spend a short time with relatives.

Mrs. Schuyler Colfax, of South Bend, is expected next week to be the guest of Mrs. T. P. Haughey.

Miss Julia Vecoma, of Evansville, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Sisson, on East Pratt street.

Mrs. A. B. Young will give a reception this afternoon to Mrs. Chap Williams and mother, Mrs. Durbin, from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harritt, of St. Joseph, Mo., are guests of Mrs. Harritt's mother, Mrs. Ellen Stone, on West Vermont street.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Golden, of Des Moines, Ia., are spending a few days with relatives here—on route for New York State for the summer.

Mr. M. Whitney, of Youngville, Pa., has been called here by the illness of his mother, Mrs. Callender, Mrs. J. W. Chirman, on North Meridian street.

The father of Frank Conant, who was seriously wounded by a highwayman in a suburb of Cincinnati night before last, is a conductor on the Big Four railroad.

Misses Lula and Cassie Guinn, of East Morris street, went to Anderson yesterday morning, to attend the funeral of the late Kollo Franklin, of this city.

The Rev. Dr. Keen, who will have charge of the Aton camp-meeting this year, has invited Bishop Taylor, of Africa, to attend it. It is probable the Bishop will come, and, if he does, a child's day is to be set apart during his stay.

Miss Frances E. Willard, president of the National W. C. T. U., will speak at Roberts Park Church on Sunday evening next on "The New Crusade." Miss Willard is a general in enterprise and as a speaker is recognized everywhere as one of the most eloquent of living orators. Her announcement to speak is sufficient to draw a full house anywhere.

Mrs. Emily Kelly's pleasant parlors were filled yesterday afternoon on the occasion of a prior meeting of the Central W. C. T. U. Delegates from the State convention had returned, and gave interesting reports. Music and recitations varied the exercises. A reception to the dining-room revealed a feast of another kind. Fragrant coffee, elegant cake and refreshing creams completed the repast, and a hearty vote of thanks was returned to Mrs. Kelly.

The social given by the German ladies at the Y. M. C. A. building was one of the nicest affairs of the season. The attendance was beyond expectation, over 300 persons being present. The music, and recitations, and other means of entertainment were excellent, and a most enjoyable time was had by all who attended. It is the purpose to continue these social meetings in the future, and the ladies who had this one in charge are very much gratified at its success in every particular.

The presentation of "Ben-Hur" in a series of scenes or tableaux at English's Opera house on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and Wednesday matinee, will be an event of more than ordinary interest. General Wallace's book has had a national reading, and every one interested in the graphic descriptions. "The Evening with Ben-Hur" has been given in Washington, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Richmond, Springfield and Hartford, Mass., and other cities with the most pronounced financial success and most laudatory criticisms of the press and public. The several scenes will be read by Miss Marion Stearns, of Springfield, a very accomplished elocutionist who is very highly spoken of. The sale of tickets and reserved seats will begin this morning. To those who have bought tickets there is no extra charge for reserved seats. Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Bradford, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Stearns, who are to take charge of the entertainment, will arrive to-morrow noon. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Coffin, and Miss Stearns the guest of Mrs. Daniel Stewart.
